

Craig L. Fuller
President and Chief Executive Officer
National Association of Chain Drug Stores (NACDS)

NACDS is a national and international trade association founded to represent the views and policy positions of member chain drug companies to the government and consumers. Since its founding in 1933, NACDS has provided its members with industry resources, consumer information, publications, and educational opportunities to foster a strong and vital chain drug store industry.

Since joining NACDS in November 1999, Mr. Fuller has been named Chairman of both the NACDS Foundation and ChainDrugStore.net, and also serves as Co-Chairman of SureScripts. Mr. Fuller represents the industry by speaking on a wide range of pharmacy issues, as well as appearing on national and local news programs and in the media to discuss politics and public policy.

Prior to joining NACDS, Mr. Fuller served for eight years in the White House as Assistant to President Reagan for Cabinet Affairs, and as Chief of Staff to Vice President George H.W. Bush. In addition to Mr. Fuller's public service, he has served at the senior executive level of several companies in the private sector including Korn/Ferry International, Philip Morris, Burson Marsteller and Hill & Knowlton.

Mr. Fuller holds a B.S. in political science from the University of California at Los Angeles and a Masters in Urban Studies from Occidental College. Additionally, he was a Coro Foundation Public Affairs Fellow in Los Angeles in 1974.

Mr. Fuller and his wife, Karen, live in McLean, Virginia.
